PROJECT AND ENTERPRISE MANAGEMENT MSc

Application processing time

Application processes vary from programme to programme across UCL. Some selectors wait until the programme application deadline has passed before considering all applications together or in a number of different rounds. Other selectors consider applications as soon as they are received.

For this programme, applications are considered in a number of different rounds, as indicated on the tables below.

Application submitted and complete, with transcript and references by: